

Nancy Fitzgerald

Nancy Fitzgerald believes that music makes the occasion! For over 24 years she has been playing piano professionally, providing customized music for all kinds of celebrations throughout the Boulder/Denver area, including weddings, dinner parties, grand openings, arts events, holiday parties and graduations. Her business, Black Tie Piano of Boulder, has been selected by clients for several years including the University of Colorado, The Hotel Boulderado, The Broadmoor, Boettcher Mansion, Omni Hotel and Resort, The Dove House/Gate House and many other private and corporate entities. A teacher, singer and composer, she is comfortable with a broad range of styles, including classical, jazz, blues, new age and popular and draws from her large repertoire to provide the right music for each event. When she is not playing piano for her clients, she is teaching at Louisville's Dana V. Music and in her own studio, working with students of all ages and abilities. Nancy is also a singer and keyboardist for The Bluezzers, a local blues band which is also available for hire.
